BY MBS. HALE.

My hoy, thou wilt dream the world is fair,
And thy spirit will sigh to roam;
And thou must go; hut never, when there,
Forget the light of home.

Though pleasure may smile with a ray m It dazzies to lean astray; Like the meteor's flash, 'twill deepen the When thou treadest the lonely way.

But the hearth of home has a constant fla And pure as vestal fire; "Twill hurn, 'twill burn, forever the same For nature feeds the pyre.
